Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Development in Gardening annually circulates its Conflict of Interest Policy to directors and other covered persons, and requires an annual written disclosure from all covered persons in prescribed form as to the existence or not of any conflicts of interest. The organization's conflict of interest policy covers directors, managers, principal officers or other members of a committee with board delegated powers. At such meeting of the Board or Committee, after disclosure of all material facts and any follow-up discussion with, or investigation of, the Interested Person with a potential conflict of interest, the Board or a Committee thereof (excluding such Interested Person) shall determine whether a material financial interest, self dealing transaction or other kind of actual conflict exists. The decision-making body will evaluate the disclosures by the Interested Person, and will determine on a case-by-case basis whether the disclosed activities constitute an actual conflict of interest. Factors the decision-making body may consider when determining whether an actual conflict exists include (i) the proximity of the Interested Person to the decision-making authority of the other entity involved in the transaction, (ii) whether the amount of the financial interest or investment is de minimis relative to the overall financial situation of the Corporation, and (iii) the degree to which the Interested Person might benefit personally if a particular transaction were approved.
